

Bachelor's and Master's dissertation

Content structure

Page	Section	Note
1	Front page (title)
2	Task	> the original task handed out (and the corresponding copy for each further version) is included without page numbering
3	Abstract	> max. 1/2 page
4	Table of content	> in decimal classification
...	Text	> content > final point: summary and outlook
...	Directories	> Bibliography > List of images > List of tables > List of abbreviations > List of Annexes > ...
Penultimate page	Declaration of independent work (Framework Examination Regulations §6 para. 6)	> I hereby declare that I completed this work independently and that I have used no aids other than those referenced. The parts of the work, which include phrases or points taken from other sources, are clearly marked with the origin of the information. This also applies to diagrams, sketches, visual representations as well as for sources from the Internet. I also declare that I have not submitted this work in any other testing procedure as an examination paper, nor will I in the future. The submitted written work corresponds to the electronic version. I agree that an electronic copy may be made and stored to enable verification by anti-plagiarism software. Place, date Signature
Final page	Theses	> max. 1 page: presentation of the main points of the work worthy of discussion (approx. 6 - 12 theses)